

On Sat July 31 about 10:00 Fred says
"now will take requests" - I think "how about Sentimental Journey?" he played next - had it cued up

Friday August 13, '82

Yesterday KODA started new "Great Times"

I complained intermittently all day
"no Olga's Song - when you song" told Joe last night I'll have to turn to Oxnard station - no hope of making requests - Fred has worked for weeks assembling new records and Dick Bailey is leaving tomorrow to be a farmer in Washington

they signed on at six AM today with Olga's Song - think is version (organ and <sup>other</sup> instruments) Fred used for contest - couldn't record - no tape left next My Beautiful Balloon - image I've always used to "program my computer" - mine is color of the sun - when you song "I will love you longer than forever" 6:15 - one line of Dita's new song "good vibrations -" (great times)

no talk till Bailey "it's 6:23 - my last day would have to be Friday 13"

6:29 news, weather

everything played in this first hour couldn't have been much more apropos to what I was thinking
