(had been up all night with Bridget sick in cold heavy rain storm Wed, Thurs. finally sat down 11:30 Fri night in clothes felt like dead — been so concerned about oriales evidently went to Mexico)

Group including Olga are at place previously talked about the men have been as far as Tall Bridge and where the thousands of baby tomatoe plants are — something is wrong that they have not gone further — feel has to do with destruction in hurricane

Water group are near Alamos - we must be looking South at town most aware of thing

like is on top of Shrine Auditorium — probably pick up on this because football games today and next week's SC-ND are on mind — it looks about same distance away as Shrine from Harbor Ferry

- you know you're getting close to Coliseum whole area looks much like here - Sm town sitting down among tall hills - palm trees very tall - just tops
