It was Christmas Day - noon - when washing windows to take pics - handling Olga's old ones in yellow frame - thinking very much of them - feel Yeri close - he is going to start home Sat. Jan. 2
Full moon is Sat. 9

I expect #One Son's #One Son first this year
- he looks so much like his father it can almost fool me - have excellent pictures his ways and places are different - he was in 2nd family of babies in '79 - one being fed in Joe's book - expect him to be very near if not here by March 11 - certainly plus others Sun. 14

Sun. Jan. 10 - went around thinking
"El Pozo" - thought at first might be Mario - but truly don't feel they have started yet

(there is one of the Presa things between these - Mateo)

Tues. 12 - Isiclan's 9330 - worms etc. etc.

for hours word "Badiraguato" is driving me nuts like Brawley did - won't quit are they going a different way? - don't remember these words - there is a hand lettered sign on cardboard cut from box
"Cheranas" - don't know what they are
