

MONDAY JUNE 27, 1983

Mon. June 27, '83 - 12:30 for about 3 hrs have been bothered in midst of everything else by scene that seems to be an evacuation shelter - think it is a church rather than a school (where usually go here) there are Mexican people and children — there are wrapped sandwiches and coffee —

impression so insistent - had to note

Since about 11:00 "Andrade" (2) Andrade — Andrade bugs my mind — I remember only what I thought was a canal near there — yesterday thought "Winterhaven" all day — more - but just no time to write
- words don't last seconds - Honey has to go out - baby bird yelling - phone ringing
