Nov. 12

12:30

Radic played "I'll Wheeyou In my Dreams" — (was putting David's ND clippings together) Stopped cold — was as if holding little broken wing wheeyou with you saying "What a smart little bird" — was eating grapes got such bad chill had to put on sweater — was seeing whole Lake San Marcos area when was there with David and Uncle Ted in '62-'63 there was only Quail's Inn restaurant and little bungalows like our Country Club around the lake now he's playing "Wheeyou went away and my heart went with you" damit — makes me cry — over try to draw something fast no time

upon hills rows of trees

Steffany

wiggles are Jobs of expensive new houses - lots new trees planted

Only words occur are

Hermosita - San Marino

Seurise (think real estate) Something sign the restaurant used to sell bags of bread broken up to put for fish and birds - we always got some like bullfight sign <sup>in Spanish</sup> - I've been here more than once this fall now he's playing Vera Con Dios - singing outdoors
