Wed. Nov 11 - about 11:30 was somehow thinking so much of Olga and Most Beautiful all morning while doing all the work — tears come remembering — had to stop and blow nose — it is a sunny-warm Full Moon (in Taurus 2:27 PM) day — there was my baby friend of the screen and candy cups — Olga's goodbye — the original promise of the voice that goes with the birds — when Yuri came — how he and Olga both decided to go when it was time — the lemon yellow mother — the day most B first came — the day the 1st babies cried for food — the big warm cups — when you took 1st pic — 7:30 PM 11th of July — remember exact time of everything — the wonderful Easter — see much more in great detail

I do not feel Olga - West B have left San Blas area yet but others have gone ahead and back in usual relays — old scenes and words occur especially Mocoita → that way was thinking of baby Mario singing Joy to the World in July — he is still best Bullack's singer I think new word Radiaquato is his — there is a Sopez lake not sure who — they are coming together like they do here — some of Olga's boys will be home for Thanksgiving — she won't till 4th of Dec.

See if there's an O'Neil lake anywhere near Fallbrook
